

Ketchum ● Bio

Daniel Ketchum, Ph.D.

Wife: Carol Ketchum

---

- Director of Nazarene Missions International (NMI), global prayer initiatives, and EngageMagazine.com.
- Daniel and Carol are graduates of Northwest Nazarene University. Daniel completed an M.Div. at Nazarene Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. at the University of Idaho in Christian formation.
- Before becoming missionaries, the Ketchum's served as lead pastor, last at College Church in Nampa, Idaho. Daniel, an ordained elder, also served as a general board member, global president of Nazarene Youth International (NYI), district superintendent, and university trustee.
- Daniel and Carol served in the Eurasia region as field director and strategy coordinator across three fields: Western Mediterranean, Southeastern Europe, and India/South Asia. They led national district superintendents and pastors across 28 nations in thousands of churches for evangelism, discipling, leadership, church development, and education.
- Their son, Ryan, his wife, and four children serve as Nazarene volunteer missionaries in a creative access area in Asia. Before this, they served as Nazarene volunteers in India for three years. Previously, Ryan was worship leader and residential director at Northwest Nazarene University.
- Their daughter, Cherie, and husband have three children and are planting a new Nazarene church in downtown Boise, Idaho. She is a worship leader and he is an ordained elder. Prior to this, they served in worship and youth in Nazarene churches in Idaho and Washington.