

World Mission Broadcast—Pass It On!

Cast: Three young people

(Youth B and C are sitting at a table, reading something on a laptop. Youth A runs onstage, cell phone in hand.)

Youth A: Hi, guys! I just got an interesting “Pass-it-on” text from my mom who is the NMI president at our church.

Youth B: Pass it on? Pass on what?

Youth A: Well, she wants me to assist her by sending a text message to NMI members, and even the total church membership, reminding them of the upcoming World Mission Broadcast Offering and its goal.

Youth B: Wow! What a great opportunity for us to get involved. I know that World Mission Broadcast helps our church to spread the Gospel around the world via radio, television, the Internet, and other media.

Youth C: I can help you by posting some messages on Facebook. I can even remind people that World Mission Broadcast has a page on Facebook where people can download videos and can read the latest in Nazarene broadcast news.

Youth A: I appreciate your willingness to help; Mom is going to be so excited. It’s amazing how we can use technology to our advantage. I am sure the message is going to spread like wildfire.

Youth B: Well, what are you waiting on? Let’s pass it on.

Youth C: Sure. Pass it on.

Youth A: (walking off stage) Any medium that will help to point people to Christ is worth pursuing. (Types text message on phone, reading aloud while typing.) “World Mission Broadcast Offering. (Insert date of church’s offering.) Offering Goal—(insert church’s offering goal). Thousands of lives depend on you to support this ministry. Pass it on!”

Jennifer Brown
Global NMI President