

A Sweet Idea!

The North Florida District had a “sweet” idea for our convention speakers, who just happen to be some of our LINKS missionaries. We had personalized candy wrappers printed (see photos)! They are labels that you peel off and wrap around wrapped candy.

I bought the wrappers on eBay. You can get different sizes to fit different candy bars, but I went with the size for the Hershey’s Nuggets. The seller is “eightzenuff.” There are others, but I have not dealt with them. They vary in price but start around $4.99 for 60 wrappers (plus shipping, and then, of course, the candy).

The seller sends an e-mail with a sample wrapper for approval, then gets them back to you very rapidly. You can find them by going to the eBay home page (www.ebay.com) and type “60 Personalized PHOTO Candy WRAPPERS “ in the search bar.

We gave them to the local presidents (and Howie and Bev Shute, our LINKS missionaries), and I included instructions should they would want to buy some for their local churches (a great Faith Promise idea).
