

Local NMI President's 15-Point Checklist

With God's help, I will

- ❑ Build a relationship with my pastor, local council and other local presidents.
- ❑ Communicate regularly with my pastor and council on all major emphases and upcoming events.
- ❑ Enlist the aid of my district president and district council when needing information, inspiration, or advice and strive to be a "team player" on my zone and district.
- ❑ Inform my district president of any exciting missions news from my church.
- ❑ Submit year-end reports on time.
- ❑ Prepare for local council meetings so reporting and input, vision-casting and team-building, planning and implementing, can be effective.
- ❑ Hold council members accountable for their emphases/assignments and reporting.
- ❑ Provide ongoing training to council members, giving them written job descriptions, including examples of what has been successful, and resource materials.
- ❑ Emphasize the importance of Mission Priority One and urge my church to meet and exceed all goals.
- ❑ Set goals for my church—with the input of the pastor and council—on the major emphases and keep those goals before my congregation.
- ❑ Follow through on my church's participation in each emphasis and ensure that all offerings are submitted on time.
- ❑ Support "Connecting a New Generation," the decadal goals set for children and youth, and challenge my church to include the young people of the church in our mission plans.
- ❑ Work with the council to guarantee an informative, exciting, fast-paced, people-involved monthly missionary service.
- ❑ Assure that my church has a place for NMI promotion (bulletin board, newsletter, display, etc.) and that NMI is presented creatively in an attention-getting manner.
- ❑ Ask God daily to give me passion, wisdom, creativity, and strength for my mission's task.
