

One way to use PML and Engage Magazine

On March 20, East Tennessee District President Teresa Hodge sent the following e-mail to local NMI leaders on her district. It is a great example of an easy and quick way to remind NMI leaders of the resources available to them. Please feel free to use Teresa's idea.

Subject: Great NMI Tools

Good Morning,

I just enjoyed devotions, using today's Prayer Mobilization Line as a prayer guide. I really enjoyed being able to click on the names of featured missionaries to read their profiles on Engage magazine. Seeing their pictures and reading their profiles made me feel like I really knew them.

We are really blessed to have such great tools as Prayer Mobilization Line and Engage Magazine...how cool that they are tied together like this for us to easily use! If you have not used these tools, try them today. If you need help accessing them, please let me know. I'll be glad to help!

*Blessings,
Teresa Hodge
